THE EBELL OF LOS ANGELES

Inspired by the party's "All In" spirit, the Leigh Steinberg Poker Tournament debuted at the 2024 Super Bowl party and returns for the 40th Annual Leigh Steinberg Super Bowl Party in Los Angeles.

Hosted by poker legend and consummate philanthropist Jamie Gold, it gives guests a once-in-a-lifetime chance to try their hand against poker champions, NFL greats and celebrities, and to win money-can't-buy prizes.

The Leigh Steinberg Super Bowl Party is not just a party; it is a platform to explore Leigh's mission supporting brain health and longevity, and also a vehicle to raise awareness and funding for a non-profit organization each year.

"Poker is one of the best things you can do for your brain."

A landmark turning 100

The Ebell of Los Angeles is a Los Angeles treasure, listed as a Landmark on the National Register of Historic Places. Celebrating its 100th anniversary in 2027, its sprawling Mid-Wilshire campus was designed in 1927 by architect Sumner Hunt in a grand Italian Renaissance Revival style, complete with hand-carved ceilings, a lush courtyard garden, and the iconic 1,238-seat Wilshire Ebell Theatre. Over the decades, the historic complex has been home to legendary cultural moments: the stage where a young Judy Garland was discovered in 1934, the site of Amelia Earhart's final public address in 1937, and the filming location for dozens of iconic films and shows, including Forrest Gump, Air Force One, Catch Me If You Can, Mad Men, and Hacks. Now home to events, screenings, and live performances, The Ebell stands as an enduring monument to Los Angeles's rich history and vibrant creative spirit.
